Davis Cat Rescuers Party

Linda Davis hosted a party to thank volunteers who help The Privileged Pet rescue shelter cats from euthanasia and find great homes for them. Julia Duke, who has owned The Privileged Pet, a pet and home sitting business for 18 years, spends all her spare time rescuing cats from shelters with her volunteer helpers.

One foster mom at the event, Kristie Burnett, has been feeding several tiny kittens with a syringe every three hours. The kittens and numerous adult cats soon will need good permanent homes.

Davis made all the delicious food for the party, including crab cakes, chicken salad, vegetables and dip, artichoke dip, cheese and crackers, and cupcakes.

For more information on adopting cats or to volunteer to help, go to theprivilegedpet.petfinder.com or call 354-5611.
