

Volunteers with the Desperate House Cats Rescue gathered at Outback for their annual holiday party.

Everyone ordered what they wanted from the menu and shared numerous appetizers.

Then they held their "Dirty Santa" event, in which participants can "steal" gifts from those who have previously opened their selections.

Guests included: Julia Duke, Darrell Thompson, Justin Curtis, and Lorie Van Olst.

Desperate House Cats takes in cats from shelters and fosters them in homes until they are adopted.
